

CLERK: Right.

SENATOR WESELY: ...and then the second.

CLERK: Okay.

SENATOR WESELY: Is that all right, Mr. Speaker?

SPEAKER BARRETT: The Chair has no objection.

SENATOR WESELY: Okay. The first element of the committee amendments deals with a report that is required under the Family Policy Act to be submitted by the Departments of Corrections, Health, Public Institutions, Social Services and Education to the Legislature. Under the bill which was considered last year, that report was due November 15 of 1989. I understand there is an amendment to that section that we would need to adopt before we adopted this particular new section. But the Family Policy Act, if you recall, was legislation championed by Senator Scofield and what it did was establish a mechanism for different state agencies to work together to deal with family issues, families at risk getting support to try and deal with their problems and there was a need to identify the roles of the different agencies in carrying out this policy and this section would clarify the need to report back to the Legislature on that but we do need a date change. So I guess at this time I'd want to take up the amendment to that section.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Senator, so you want to amend Section 1, just again to ensure you and I are in the same...

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

CLERK: It talks about Department of Education submitting the plan.

SENATOR WESELY: Right.

CLERK: And you want to change 1989 to 1990?

SENATOR WESELY: That's right.

CLERK: Okay. Mr. President, Senator Wesely would move to amend
